Dear Eduardo Febres:

I am pleased to inform you that your presentation "El carácter fetichista de una bacinilla y su secreto colonial: escatología y economía política en Sociedades americanas en 1828, de Simón Rodríguez" has been accepted for the 2020 KFLC: The Languages, Literatures, and Cultures Conference.

As a reminder, the conference dates are April 16-18, 2020. Papers should be no more than 20 minutes in length, and there will be a brief discussion period following each presentation. No papers may be read in absentia.

The deadline for registration is Wednesday, April 1 at 11:59 PM EST. Please be aware that if you register after the deadline, your name will not appear in the program.

You should make your lodging reservations as soon as possible. April is the season for horse racing in Lexington and hotels with shuttle service will soon fill up. Please consult the conference website for more information on lodging and other logistics (https://kflc.as.uky.edu/hotels).

Please be aware that there is no regular shuttle or transportation service between Lexington and the airports at Cincinnati and Louisville; therefore, conference participants are encouraged to fly directly into Lexington.

AV requests must be made on or before March 1, 2019, so that we can guarantee your reservation. Please visit the website to complete your AV request (https://kflc.as.uky.edu/av-request).

We recommend you check the website regularly for updates on conference information and announcements. Don't hesitate to let me know if I can be of further assistance with your arrangements. Thank you for your participation in this year's conference. I look forward to seeing you here in April.

Sincerely,

Dierdra Reber
